TO CHORAL SOCIETIES.—To remove the heavy taxes upon musical knowledge which had for so long a period prevented the possibility of the dissemination of the works of the great composers amongst the people of this country, Mr. J. Alfred Novello, in the year 1846, commenced the issue of those cheap editions of the standard oratorios and other sacred compositions, which are now too well known by all classes to need a word of recommendation. For some years the choruses in the octavo editions of these works have been published separately, with an organ or pianoforte accompaniment, at an exceedingly cheap rate. Messrs. Novello, Ewer and Co., however, believe that the time has now arrived when they may still further help forward the good work which has already produced such glorious results; and they have resolved, therefore, upon reducing the price of the whole of the octavo choruses fully fifty per cent. A list of these (with the reduced prices) will be found in the October number of the Musical Times; and purchasers should be careful, in ordering them, to ask for "Novello's Octavo Choruses," as it is also the intention of the publishers to issue a new edition of some of the most popular of these choruses, without accompaniment, which will be published under the title of "Novello's Penny Choruses." This work will be issued in numbers of the usual octavo size, each containing at least one, and frequently two or three choruses.
